By JEAN ELIOT.
A CHARMING home wedding was solemnized at noon today at the residence of Rear Admiral and Mrs. J. D. Adams, in Connecticut avenue, when their daughter, Miss Edmonia Adams, became the bride of Dr. Richard A. Kearney, of the Public Health Service. The ceremony, which was performed by Monsignor Mackin, took place in the drawing room, which was lavishly decorated with palms, roses and Easter lilies. The bride was given in marriage by her father, wearing a gown of white satin with old family lace, and a veil of tulle, edged with lace and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Percival Dodge was her sister's only attendant and looked charming in a draped gown of white crepe, with tulle in her hair, and a huge arm bouquet of white roses.

Passed Assistant Surgeon George E. Riker, U. S. N., was best man for Dr. Kearney.

The marriage was witnessed only by the immediate family of the bride and groom, and a few intimate friends of the bride. A number of additional guests were invited to the breakfast, which followed the ceremony. Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. Kearney's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Kearney.

Mrs. W. G. Brantley is entertaining at tea this afternoon at her home in Wyoming avenue, in honor of Mrs. William Harris, wife of the Director of the Census, and Mrs. Charles O. Locke, of Birmingham, Ala. Assisting Mrs. Brantley are her house guests, Mrs. A. M. Shook and Mrs. Edwin A. Price, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Joseph Rucker Lamar, Mrs. Ollie James, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Swager Sherley, and Mrs. John Corrihan. Miss Genevieve Clark is at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Brantley's niece, Miss Constance Brantley, and Mrs. Locke's daughter, Miss Elizabeth Locke, who are students at the Cathedral School.

Mrs. Shook and Mrs. Price will be with Mrs. Brantley for a week or ten days, and tomorrow she will entertain at a buffet luncheon in her honor.

Rear Admiral P. E. Chadwick, of Newport, R. I., Justice Morgan and J. O'Brien, of New York City, are among those who have recently arrived in Washington and are guests at the New Richmond Hotel.

The District Society, Daughters of B. E., will give a reception at the Powhatan this evening from 9 until 11 o'clock. The president of the society, Mrs. Kate Kearney Henry, will be assisted by a number of the daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denegre and Miss Elaine Denegre will be extensively entertained during their stay in town. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson are entertaining at dinner in their honor and Friday evening they will give a dance in compliment to Miss Denegre. Mr. and Mrs. Denegre and Miss Elaine will leave for Boston next week, but will return early in May for a more extended stay.

Congressman and Mrs. H. D. Flood have returned from their wedding trip and are at the Shoreham, where they will make their home until they take a house.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Mission Society of St. John's Church will give its annual tea tomorrow afternoon, in the parish hall, on the Avenue of the Presidents, near H street. The ladies in charge of the tables will be Mrs. Thomas Ewing, Mrs. P. M. Rixey, Mrs. Harrison H. Dodge, Mrs. Kate Kearney Henry, Mrs. David Graham Adee, Mrs. Edward Slater Dunlap, Mrs. William A. De Caudry, Mrs. Charles H. Stockton, Mrs. Randall Webb, and Mrs. T. Percy Myers.

Mrs. Wallis Ivy and baby daughter will be the guests for several weeks of Mrs. Ivy's parents, Gen. and Mrs. J. H. Hinkler, at the Harford, 1315 Clifton street.

Washington society is dividing its interest between the activities of the D. A. R. sessions at the Capitol, and the suffrage ball at the New Willard tomorrow night. Mrs. Wilson and Miss Eleanor Wilson were among the huge gathering at the Capitol yesterday to hear the President deliver his message to Congress on the Mexican situation. The diplomatic gallery was crowded and every other seat filled with the ladies of the suffrage ball tonight are Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, of New York; Mrs. John Jay White, Mrs. Edward Beale McLean, Mrs. S. B. M. Young, and Mrs. Sheldon Jackson. The Meyer Davis Orchestra will play for the dancing, and at midnight a seated supper will be served.

The reception and dance which the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall gave last evening at the Shoreham was the last of the series of four which they have given this season. This had been postponed on account of the death of Senator Bacon.

On account of the night session at the Capitol the Vice President was unable to be present throughout the reception. In fact many of the women guests came unaccompanied, and were joined later in the evening by the men whose duties kept them at the Capitol.

Mrs. Marshall received her guests.

BRIDE OF TODAY

MRS. RICHARD A. KEARNEY,
Formerly Miss Edmonia M. Adams.

standing at the head of the stairway in the Rose Room. She wore a beautiful gown of wisteria charmeuse, trimmed with rhinestone embroidery. Palms, ferns, azaleas, rambler roses and branches of apricot blossoms surrounded the decorations in the rose room and hallway, and in the ballroom palms and pink Killarney roses were used. An orchestra from the Marine Band played for the dancing, and an orchestra in the gallery of the Rose Room played throughout the evening. A buffet supper was served in the Palm Room during the evening.

Society will assemble tomorrow and Thursday at the beautiful country residence of Mrs. Charles J. Bell, "Twin Oaks," Woodley lane, when they will be given an opportunity to see the Coburn Players in their wonderful outdoor performances.

Three plays will be given among the trees, with nature's own shrubbery for their scenery and the green carpet of grass for the stage. Wednesday evening, "Sanctuary" will be played, the bird masque in which the President's daughters took part last summer. It is a lovely little piece, written for the devotion of the bird sanctuary in Meriden, N. H., and set to music.

On the interesting occasion of Shakespeare's birthday, April 23, the players will give very appropriately "The Taming of the Shrew." The charm of the wonderful piece will be greatly enhanced by the beautiful surroundings under which it will be given and by the talent of these beautifully trained performers to portray the unusually defined individualities of the interesting characters. On Thursday evening the piece will be "The Merchant of Venice." Miss Margaret Wilson is very much interested in the production. Among those who have taken boxes are Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Lady Spring-Rice, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Dmick, Mrs. Parmelee, and Mrs. Kirk Porter.

Word has been received at Washington that Giuseppe Catalani has been recalled as counselor of the Italian embassy, and in his place Cavalier Riccardo Berghetti has been appointed.

Mr. Berghetti is expected to arrive at Washington about the middle of May. Mr. and Mrs. Catalani sailed for Italy early in March.

Senator and Mrs. Sausbury entertained at dinner last night. Their guests were Senator and Mrs. John K. Spaulding, Congressman and Mrs. Swager Sherley, the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Breckinridge, the Comptroller of the Currency and Mrs. John Skelton Williams, the Assistant to the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Adolph Casper Miller, and Mrs. Ralph Williams, Miss Elizabeth Davis, and Thomas Ruffin.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels entertained at dinner last night in compliment to former Gov. and Mrs. John Lind, who returned a few days ago from Mexico. The guests to meet them were Senator and Mrs. Overman, Senator Hoke Smith, Mrs. Lindsey M. Garrison, the Attorney General, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burgeson, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, Miss Lind, and the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Osborne.

A Message to Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food, instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh-building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your body will fill out with firm, healthy flesh as deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. Jas. O'Donnell's Drug Store and other good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take, and does not stain the teeth.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.—Adv.

PUT BAN ON SOCIETY FOR PAGEANT PARTS

Young Women of Congressional Set Will Play in Drama, "The Fire Regained."

Grecian robed and shod in sandals the fairest young women of the Congressional set will have an important part in the pageant-drama, "The Fire Regained," which is to be produced in Washington next month.

Thirty of them have put on social engagements for the next five weeks, and have plunged into the trying work of rehearsing, with characteristic energy. Most of them will take the part of veiled virgins, of whom there are to be fifty in the cast. These maidens keep the sacred fire kindled on the altar of the great temple, and the entire plot revolves about one of them who is unjustly accused of letting the flame die.

Miss Mary Ellen Wilson, daughter of the Secretary of Labor, was among the first to agree to appear in the big spectacle. Miss Eleanor Connolly, sister of Congressman Maurice Connolly, of Iowa has not only accepted a part herself, but has been instrumental in persuading many of her friends to join her. Miss Margaret Frear, daughter of the Congressman from Wisconsin, Miss Ethel Lloyd, daughter of Congressman Lloyd of Missouri, and Miss Agnes Shuckelford, daughter of Congressman Shuckelford of Missouri will also have prominent roles. Miss Mary Baker, Miss Elizabeth Kent, and Miss Rebecca Patton are other daughters of Congressmen who will take part.

Three and others will be present at the chorus rehearsal at 1317 H street northwest tonight at 8 o'clock, which will be the largest yet held. Percy S. Foster, musical director, will lead the chorus, having returned from New York yesterday.

Cadet Officers Receive Their Commissions

Officers of the Washington High School Cadet Regiment are in possession of their commissions today, having received them at the exercises held at Central High School yesterday afternoon.

Brig. Gen. Erasmus M. Weaver, U. S. A., chief of Coast Artillery, presented the commissions. Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., chief of staff, was expected, but was unable to attend. Henry P. Blair, president of the Board of Education, made a short talk.

Superintendent E. L. Thurston, Assistant Superintendent Stephen L. Kramer, and the members of the military committee of the school, who were present, gave selections. The Tech Orchestra gave selections.

Blockade All Flies Now And Clean Out Ports!

The fly has been tried and found guilty, in spite of the questionings of those who maintain the doctrine that every creature performs some useful purpose. The fly, and that function today is nothing more or less than a danger signal to indicate insanitary conditions.

To abolish the filth, the breeding places of flies, therefore, is the duty of Washingtonians who desire their city to continue as a healthful community. The campaign to eradicate the fly in the District of Columbia has been on for some time, but recruits are always welcome. The call for patriotic fly fighters is out. There are none too feeble with age, none too weak with youth. Now, before matters are worse, is the time for intervention.

In numerous cities fly campaigns have been started, and good results are sure to follow the efforts of citizens in the warfare. During the clean-up campaign here last week, wonders were performed in ridding the District of numerous fly-breeding spots and insect incubators. The days of this week, and next, and next, are to be devoted to a continuous assault on refuse and filth, and the more energetic the army of the offense, the cleaner will be the city and the freer from summer diseases.

Just how productive of good results fly campaigns have been in other cities, is shown in the anti-fly figures issued by the Merchants Association of New York. Cleveland turned the common house fly into a curiosity through united work against the pest; Harrisburg, Pa., at the close of the fly season, reported great casualties. Other cities made equally good records in their assaults on the deadly fly.

Washington will rank with the foremost cities of the country in the extermination of the fly, it is confidently expected by the District Health Department.

MOTOR FIRM FILES RATE RAISE PROTEST

First of Briefs on Eastern Roads' Application Sent by Ford Company.

The first of the briefs for and against the application of the Eastern railroads for a 5 per cent increase in freight rates is to be submitted before next Monday, the date set for beginning arguments.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today, by the Ford Motor Company, of Detroit.

The Ford company resisted the application of the roads for an advance, declaring that the present automobile rates are too high, and raised the most strenuous opposition to the suggestion of the commission that a charge be made by the railroads for "spotting" cars and other services now given free.

As to freight rates, the brief of the Ford company declares that automobiles switch a rate of 19 per cent higher than the first-class rate in official classification territory, with 1000 pounds minimum. This freight rate is paid by the automobile buyer, as the freight cost is added to the price of the machine, and the low price of the machine, and the high price of the car, is a high rate as the high price car.

The proposed "spotting" charge, however, is declared unjust, as the Ford company declares the railroads could not, without congestion at Detroit, take care of this traffic without the use of the company's privately owned sidetracks.

The suggested charge of $2 a car for "spotting" would cost the Ford company $50,000 a year at its factory alone, it is declared, and a large sum at its distributing points.

Fears She Swallowed Some Mercury Tablets

Mrs. Little Cumberland, nineteen, said to live at 841 Maryland avenue southwest, taken to Emergency Hospital last night, after swallowing bichloride of mercury tablets, is being closely watched today for effects of the poison. Mrs. Cumberland said she swallowed the tablets in a fit of despondency.

SCHOOL LIBRARY BRANCH MUST WAIT

Federation of Mothers' Clubs Delays Action on Wallach Building Project.

The establishment of a branch of the Public Library at the Wallach School and moving pictures were discussed by the members of the Federation of Mothers' Clubs, of the Seventh school district, last evening, at the home of Mrs. R. J. Craggett, 821 North Carolina avenue southeast.

The branch library at the Wallach School building, Eighth street and Pennsylvania southeast, and the East Washington department store, proposed co-operation and offered to defray half the cost.

It developed last night that another project of the federation, the construction of tennis courts at the playgrounds near the Eastern High School, would cost much more than was originally contemplated, so that it would be impossible for the organization to leave its financial aid to the library project until later in the year.

Several committees have been formed to make inquiries into the best methods mothers should pursue in exercising control over the pictures displayed before the Eastern High School. The committees has been of great value in the development of the library project.
